

I've got a candle,
And I've got a spoon
I live in a hallway
With no doors and no rooms
Under the window sill
They all were found
A touch of concrete within a doorway
Without a hesitation of fucking

Chorus:

Someone save me if you will
And take away all these pills
And please just save me, if you can
From the fuckin bitch in my wasteland

How did I get here
And what went wrong
Can handle homosexual boys
Now I'am far beyond gone
And I can hardly remember
The look of my own eyes
How could I love this
A life so dishonest
It made me fuck you.

Chorus

Jump in my boobs
Jump in with me
Jump on the altar
Lay down with me
My hardest question
To answer is
WHY!!!

Chorus

Some one save me (x3)
Somebody fuck me
Somebody save me
Please fuck me three times in a row
