I see you're true colors shining through,
I see you're true colours and thats why I love you I see your (one for the ghetto) true colors shining through (straight up) I see your true colors and that why I love you baby,...

Yo father forgive we all trying to survive we live I'd rather feed the homeless and take time talk about the kids Show them that life ain't no walk on the bridge Damn, as hard it is when I be dreaming I be talking to big In my hood it ain't no yellow brick road you hear the shots echo Sneakers hanging from a telephone poll In my ghetto there ain't no rainbow or pots or gold... But there was love from the family when times were cold. I sit an analyze the world from my roof seen the hope in the eyez of the trouble
A good killa kept a burner in his bubble goose a mother less child lost in these streets loosed.
in the murder days these are rainy dayz my man got popped at an early age His college fund saved flipped into his grave they say the good die young were hourly game

I see your true colors shining through
I see your true colors and thats why I love you
I see your true colors shining through
I see your true colors and thats why I love you baby

Yo they say this love wasnt meant to be Two people from different worlds we wasnt be it must have been faith you were sent to me will make it threw this hard times eventually the standard fight brought by faith not by sight we all the same color when you turn out the lights i take the sunshine with the paine grab my sara gone sad that when it rains no french kept out the food on the window pain we all breath the same air so we all the same I am trapped in this ghetto maze trying to make it out
If you dont know me dont judge me what you talking bout I am dividable by broken dreams single moms you my heros you my queens to get my mom out the hood that is my hopes and dreams to reach my son to be a solja by any means

I see your true colors shining through
I see your true colors and thats why I love you
I see your true colors shining through
I see your true colors and thats why I love you baby
