Title: Underworld

Living in the underworld and feeling what you'll never feel Trapped in a corner I may wait for the will
Behind the shadows are the killing hands of anarchy
Forever it will burn, forever I will live
Falling to the underworld the world of fallen gods
Far beyond the sun, together as one we can recall
Lost friends in the morning of disgrace
Friends with two faces
I am looking to the past and there was no reason in that world
The worst thought of god was a stupid joke
I will never understand what you think about yourself
You are out! I will try for someone else
Falling to the underworld the world of fallen gods
Far beyond the sun, together as one we can recall
Lost friends in the morning of disgrace
Friends with two faces, I sing this song in vain...
Until the end you know
I feel inside the pain
But listen to dreams
They always tells the truth
Falling to the underworld the world of fallen gods
Far beyond the sun, together as one we can recall
Lost friends in the morning of disgrace
Friends with two faces,
I sing this song in vain... until the end
