

I don't want to be compared to you
So please don't tell me what to do
I'm okay on my own

This song just seems so far away
I pick up my guitar everyday
What am I doing wrong?

Can we pick up from where we started?

Keep it together
I know it will be alright
If we keep it together
I know it will be alright

Sometimes I wonder why we're doing this
It all just seems so hit and miss
Can someone fill me in?

And now I feel I have to compromise
'Cause you can't look me in the eyes
It's happening again

Can we pick up from where we started?

Keep it together
I know it will be alright
If we keep it together
I know it will be alright
