

Shifting my perspective on reality
Staring at the lunatics surrounding me
Every single day in every single way
Caring less and less about humanity
Tripping through the dreams of insanity
Reflections on our lives as they used to be
A change, a rest I think it's for the best
Crush the pain of infidelity
I've seen a vision of hope
A vision of love
A vision of what could be
I've seen a vision of hope
A vision of love
A vision to set us free
Cooking up the desparado fantasy
Giving up the things that used to be
Like a lying in the park
A lying in the dark
Staring at the lunatic beside of me
Shifting my perspective of reality
Hypnotising, tantalising melody
Can we live apart, can we make a fresh start
Face up to a vision of unity
I've seen a vision of hope
A vision of love
A vision of what could be
I've seen a vision of hope
A vision of love
A vision to set us free
I've seen a vision of hope
A vision of love
A vision of what could be
I've seen a vision of hope
A vision of love
A vision to set us free
Sometimes when you know you've had enough
Take hold and be tough
You've got to get yourself together
Everybody take a look into your heart
We've got to make a fresh start
I've seen a vision
Sometimes when the spirit doesn't move you
You need a push to get back into the groove yeah
So give it up, let your body become looser
Shake your head until you move like a Medusa
Take a chance put your hand into fire
Coz if you let me take you, then I'm going to take you higher
Oh yeah take a positive decision
A vision of love
A vision of love
