Title: Watching The Christians Burn download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com> death from the sky you won't survive darken clouds fill your eyes vaporize all mankind, burning their flesh burning alive, burning your flesh as you die a funeral held for all mankind all humanity will have learned that Jesus Christ will never return watching the Christians burn laughing watching them burn watching the Christians burn laughing as I watch them burn final judgment of Christianity Leviathan rises from the raging sea day of judgment Lucifer calling the seas are red from blood of the dead bodies lie burned and decayed no one left to cover the graves undead eat the charred dead flesh nothing but the bones are left rivers flow with death rotting is the smell burning of flesh for eternity warheads the last ones dead the dogs of war, Satan's little whore's day of judgment for Christianity Leviathan rises from the raging sea

I Lucifer, stole the earth condem your souls for all your worth BOW DOWN AND WORSHIP ME CAUSE I'M YOUR SAVIOR
FOR ETERNITY
