

(By Matraca Berg & Randy Scruggs)

The summer air was heavy and sweet
You and I on a crowded street
There was music everywhere, I can see us there
In a happy little foreign town
Where the stars hung upside down
A half a world away, far far away
I remember you were laughing
We were so in love, we were so in love

And the band played song's that we have never heard
But we danced anyway
We never understood the words
We just sang oh la la la la la la laa
And we danced anyway

They say you can't go back. Baby I don't believe that
#####Come along with me, come(ON)dance with me Maybe if I hold you close
Baby we could just let go
Of these things that tie us down, we'll come back around
Do you remember we were laughing
We were so in love, we were so in love

And the band played song's we had never heard
But we danced anyway
We never understood the words
We just sang oh la la la la la la la la
We danced anyway

Do you remember we were laughing
We were so in love, we were so in love

And the band played song's we had never heard
But we danced anyway
We never understood the words
We just sang oh la la la la la la la la la oh
We danced anyway oh we danced any way, we danced any way
