

There is this girl
She looks a lot like me
and all she does is think
About you constantly
But she's too shy
To ever let it show
And I think you know
Now just for fun
Let's pretend that it's me
And I'm everything
You'll ever need
Oh

Chorus:
What are you waiting for?
Are you crazy?
Open your eyes and see
What's goin' on baby.
There's someone at your door
Her heart is racing
Go on and make your move
What are you waiting for baby?

Now here's a clue
Her favorite colors blue.
That's how she'll feel
If she can't be with you
'Cause you're the one
That takes her breath away (breath away)
When you look that way.
So just for fun
let's pretend that it's me
And I'm everything
You'll ever need
Oh

(Chorus)

I hear there's something good
That waits for you.
Check it out
It just might be true.
There's so much more to her
Than meets the eye
You'll never no it
If you don't try.

(Chorus 2x)
