

Little tired
I can't sleep what's wrong with me
Still all in denial
That you've been gone for weeks
Now I know what I should've known
Right from the beginning
My heart was blind
And now I'm man enough to admit it

I don't wanna go another day
Bein' without your love
(no I don't baby)
I've been listenin to my heart
And now it's speakin' 'bout love
(Tell me why baby)
Tell my why you always have to leave
And take your love away
(you didn't have to do it baby)
Now I realize you were the best for me
Just a little too late baby

I shoulda trusted my instinct
Whats wrong with me
Thought I learned all my lessons
But I didn't learn a thing
You once said that
You couldn't take me where you was headed
I cried inside and now
I'm man enough to admit it

I don't wanna go another day
Bein' without your love
(no I don't baby)
I've been listenin to my heart
And now it's speakin' 'bout love
(Tell me why baby)
Tell my why you always have to leave
And take your love away
(you didn't have to do it baby)
Now I realize you were the best for me
Just a little too late baby

Now I miss you like a nigga should
Miss you like a nigga should baby baby

I don't wanna go another day
Bein' without your love
(no I don't baby)
I've been listenin to my heart
And now it's speakin' 'bout love
(Tell me why baby)
Tell my why you always have to leave
And take your love away
(you didn't have to do it baby)
Now I realize you were the best for me
Just a little too late baby
