Title: When Your Love Is Too Far

Baby I'm tired of thinking I was wrong
I'm lost with no sign
A game with no end

I've been there searching gold but suddenly
You played with my mind
Got words from behind

A promise is right babe
I can believe in some
No win by default in your life
I'm lost when you're mindless

How can I fall down

Baby when your love is too far
There's no strength in my heart
No will leads to distance
Can you feel it now
Your love is too far
I swear but again
The silence between us
I can feel it now
