

[Tom Naumann/de Angelis]

come, come with me, to a trip into eternity the nightmare is callin' so near, so far hell, hell awaits where the blood red journey ends the end's comin' closer your death, your pain

the king of madness, to blind to see the queen of sadness, dies to be free

Say your prayer and take my hand I'll show you the evil land where the demons dare to fly and angels die take, take my hand, I will lead you to my land it's your destination so real, so real come, come with me, to a place where you'll never be free the wasteland of dream world die young, die fast

say your prayer and take my hand
