Title: Who Belongs

Tear down the walls you create when you claim to have an open mind.
My message is what I believe in this lifeless world that we now live in.
How could I keep this freedom I have from you.
Salvation.
It is yours to embrace.
I heard the words you said.
We don't belong.
You try to shove us out of this hardcore scene.
It's yours. It's mine.
We share the same stage.
And I am here to stay.
I can see all to clear.
Another day I'll be here.
Now's the time to realize we are not the enemy.
I am not of you but I'm not you.
I'm here for you.
I'll be here beside you.
