

All of the things I never did,
I was waiting for the right time,
All of the things I never said,
I was waiting for the right line,
When is the right time the right time,
I'd be waiting all my life,
So I'm gonna show you now,
The only way I know how,

And I don't care who sees,
And I don't care who tells who
I wish the whole world knew,
Baby I've been kissing you,
Though people walking by,
May stare at you and I.
The world is out of view,
Baby when I'm kissing you.

Girl I had nowhere left to go,
I was waiting for the right sign,
Something you'd say to let me know,
It was time to cross that line,
All of this time I didn't know,
That you were already mine,
Let me take me all the way,
Show you what no words can say,

And I don't care who sees,
And I don't care who tells who
I wish the whole world knew,
Baby I've been kissing you,
Though people walking by,
May stare at you and I.
The world is out of view,
Baby when I'm kissing you.

Why, should I hide,
When you're close to me,
It's the only time, I'm alive,
And I.

And I don't care who sees,
And I don't care who tells who
I wish the whole world knew,
Baby I've been kissing you,
Though people walking by,
May stare at you and I.
The world is out of view,
Baby when I'm kissing you
