Title: Without The Dreamer

Burning me up like a fever
Just like a dream without the dreamer

I feel it coming coming for me

Shed my skin with an evil grin
No one knows where I've been Without the dreamer

Burning me up like a fever
Just like a dream without the dreamer

I hear a distant whisper whispering my name

Shed my sin with an evil grin
No one knows what it means to be the dreamer
