

it feels like only yesterday that you were lying here with me i still hear you say... OOO YEA, i love the way... OOO YEA but now its just a memory now im knowing that it was my fault by thinking i could brush it off you always with me saying... OOO YEA so what its 5am im checking in when i check in baby i was thinking, im so slick knowing that ive done you wrong but you never know what you got til what you got is gone got to try and make it through without you and theres nothing i can do come on home baby (repeat) i remember comong home that night knowing something wasnt right i was saying... OOO YEA im sure that all her things are packed and its just too late to get her back didnt even have to read the note just to know that your heart was broke i was thinking... OOO YEA you had more than you can stand i should have been a better man

girl i was doing you so wrong

im so sorry for the things ive done i should have put you number one but ive been playing myself cause i know that you're all i want but if you give me one more chance i'll break it down for you lady no more playing around baby i want to be there for you gonna make it through
