Title: You decide

---

Will you stand true to your loyalty
Will your honor stand the test of time
Can we count on you when the time comes
Will you stand your ground

CHORUS
It's your decision
You can't deny
It's your fate
That you decide

Can you stand the pain
Predators of the streets attack the weak
They attack the young, they attack the sick
Will you be next?
