

Lost like the best of us can get
Wings with no direction
Tossed over waves of emptiness
Looking glass with no reflection
But at the end of my rope
You came and gave me hope

When I needed faith, you were an answered prayer
When I needed life, you were a breath of air
When my soul was a desert, you were a fountain
When I needed a rock, you were a mountain

Why at the bottom in the dark
Would someone reach down and touch me
Light drove the shadows from my heart
What a way to say you love me
This time I won't lose my way
Holding your hand everyday

When I needed faith, you were an answered prayer
When I needed life, you were a breath of air
When my soul was a desert, you were a fountain
When I needed a rock, you were a mountain

When my soul was a desert, you were a fountain
When I needed a rock, you were a mountain
