

Suddenly, you will believe in me
What more was it that I could be?
That you would be me

The year 2000, I'll be back on the dole
Single and free, the best I'll ever be
Your love
Oh I'm alone in your room
There on the floor there's a little black book
You left it there on the floor
You left it...and I opened it!

Your diary, Your diary
Open and inviting me back
Your diary, your diary
Open and inviting me back

Why you loved him
He's asking you why you loved him
He's asking you why you loved him
Buy you couldnt say why you loved him

Oh, but he gave you a list of all the reasons why he did
And you couldn't reply...but you could say that you did!

Your diary, your diary
Open and inviting me back
Your diary, your diary
It's open and inviting me back

Lips like petals...unfurling from a bud
I could have ripped page and petals
Ripped through the blood
But I didn't and don't want you ever to read
Any diary of mine, any word i may leave yeah!

Your diary, your diary
Open and inviting me back
Your diary, your diary
It's open and inviting me back
Your diary, your diary
Open and inviting me back
Your diary, your diary
It's open and inviting me back!
