Title: Your Soul Is A Pilot

download from: <http://www.lyricsdisc.com>

Your soul is a pilot
But the rusty aeroplane cannot fly
The wings are broken
The wide propeller's trying to turn its last goodbye

So tell me...
Did you ever feel the love (I guess you didn't)
Did you ever feel the pain (I guess you didn't)
Did you ever try to play a sentimental game

Do you believe
In standing ovations
Pulling the cross behind your lies
But you cannot hide in the bible
That you rely on through your life

You're naked hiding your shame
Your time is ticking away
Just take a look at yourself
Do
